This course is aimed at introducing the students with basic concepts of conventional and emerging concepts of digital communication. Students would be able to identify and distinguish between the key concepts of conventional and digital communication. Conventional media such as television, radio, newspapers and magazines have long been the primary outlet for communication campaigns, but added to this now are digital channels like social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) that have increased the opportunities for companies, big and small, to connect and spread the word. Digital communications media are inherently capable of being more interactive, more participatory, more egalitarian, more decentralized, and less hierarchical. As such, the types of social relations and communities which can be built on these media share these characteristics. This course further enables the students to understand the communication process, conventional and digital communication systems, problems and prospects of conventional and digital communication and distinguish among various forms of mass media.

Contents

1. Communication: process, types and functions
2. Barriers in communication
3. Models of mass communication: linear, circular, transactional
4. Print media communication: newspapers, magazines, periodicals, books, pamphlets, etc.
5. Electronic media communication: radio, television, film
6. New media: (internet): website, blog, vlog, and use of AI in social media
7. ICTs and emerging platforms of new media: web 2.0, web 3.0
8. The phenomenon of social media: Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Google
9. Integration, convergence, consumerism and amplifications of mass contents on ICT platforms
10. Receiver of communication as channels of ICTs
11. Media Literacy: difference between real and fake news, propaganda, Framing, angeling.

This course is aimed at introducing the students to computer technology and techniques to acquaint them with its uses in different media. It focuses on the use of various software a journalist requires while practicing journalism in daily routine. The students will learn to work effectively with a range of current, standard, and productive software applications used in various media productions. They will also be able to evaluate, select and use software appropriate to a given situation. It will help them to apply basic learning and assessment principles in the design, development, and presentation of material produced by different software. The course will facilitate students to demonstrate employability skills and a commitment to professionalism. It will also assist them to assess and solve a range of problems using software applications used in media, and adapt quickly to new software releases. Further, it will also give know-how on how to maintain quality assurance through critically evaluating procedures and results. The students will also be able to build up competencies required to develop the professional skills necessary to their survival and success in both the academic and business worlds through hands-on practice.

SEMESTER-II

The course will enable students to explore human experiences, cultivate an appreciation of the past, enrich their capacity to participate in the life of their times, and enable an engagement with other cultures and civilizations, both ancient and modern. But independently of any specific application, the study of these subjects teaches understanding and delight in the highest achievements of humanity. The three components of the course, including fables, wisdom literature and epic, will enable the learners to explore and understand the classic tradition in literature. Development of personal virtue, a deep Sufi ethic and an unwavering concern for the permanent over the fleeting and the ephemeral are some of the key themes explored in the contents that will develop an intimate connection between literature and life.

Since ancient times, numbers, quantification, statistics and mathematics has played a central role in scientific and technological development. In the 21st century, Quantitative Reasoning (QR) skills are essential for life as they help to better understand socio-economic, political, health, education, and many other issues, an individual now faces in daily life. The skills acquired by taking this course will help the students to apply QR methods in their daily life and professional activities. This course will also change student's attitude about statistics and mathematics. It will not only polish their QR skills, but also enhance their abilities to apply these skills.

Contents

1. Introduction to quantitative reasoning
2. Overview of contributions of Mathematicians and Statisticians especially Muslim scholars.
3. Types of standard numbers
4. Proportions, rates, ratio and percentages
5. Odds and odds ratio
6. Scale of measurements
7. Number sequence and series
8. Unit analysis as a problem-solving tool
9. Data handling (small and large)
10. Data errors, absolute and relative and their applications
11. Descriptive statistics
12. Rules of counting: multiplication rule, factorial, permutation and combination
13. Probability and its application in real life
14. A graphical perspective through Venn Diagram
15. Financial indicator analysis, and money management (profit, loss, simple and compound interest)
16. Practical scenarios involving algebraic expressions: linear and quadratic

اُردو زبان کا اُردو صحافت کے ساتھ تعلق بہت پرانا ہے برصغیر پاک و ہند میں صحافت اپنے ابتدائی دور سے ہی اُردو کے ساتھ جڑی نظر آتی ہے۔ صحافت کو باقاعدہ ایک منظم ادارہ کے طور پر متعارف کرانے کا سہرا تو انگریزوں کے سر ہے لیکن برصغیر میں صحافت کو جو فروغ اُردو زبان کی وجہ سے ملا وہ دیگر زبانوں کو نہیں ملا۔ اُردو زبان کو یہ امتیاز بھی حاصل ہے کہ اس میں الفاظ اور قواعد کا جتنا ذخیرہ ادب کے لئے موجود ہے کم و بیش اتنا ہی ذخیرہ صحافتی استعمال کے لئے بھی میسر ہے۔ اُردو زبان کا یہ طرہ ہے کہ اس میں صحافتی الفاظ اور قواعد کو استعمال کرتے ہوئے اس بات سے اجتناب برتا جاتا ہے کہ ثقیل الفاظ اور تراکیب سے پرہیز کیا جائے۔ صحافتی زبان کے لئے الگ ذخیرہ ہونے کے باعث صحافتی طالب علموں کے لئے یہ ضروری ہے کہ وہ صحافتی زبان میں عبور حاصل کریں۔ تاکہ صحافت میں اُردو کی خوبصورت روایت کو برقرار رکھا جاسکے۔ مذکورہ نصاب کے اغراض و مقاصد میں یہ شامل ہے کہ طالب علموں کو صحافتی زبان، اس کے خدو خال، فوائد، اصطلاحات، زبان کے استعمال اور صحافتی اسلوب سے متعارف کرایا جائے۔

The language of journalism is a fascinating field to be analyzed because it offers a challenging outlook on its subtleties and power in each journalistic genre. The study of journalistic language helps to understand how journalists create their stories or reports; shape points of view; deliver expected news; and how media language is different from other languages we encounter. Investigating, interviewing and fact-checking activities are basic components of journalism, transmitted to media consumers, to inform, persuade as well as to reinforce public beliefs, using manipulation techniques through language. The journalistic purpose is writing for newspapers, magazines or new media. All categories of media professionals have the fundamental mission to learn and practice their language as specialists with all linguistic nuances required in their profession. The course tends to articulate the basic concepts of journalistic communication skills. It will focus on improving linguistic and communicative strategies. Further, it will familiarize students with the most common words, idioms, and metaphors of the language used in the media. It will also help to develop reading, speaking, listening, and writing skills as associated with media topics and to raise students' awareness of how language choices influence meanings in the media.

Contents

1. Introduction to journalistic writings, the language of newspapers, radio and television
2. Improving Writing Skills, how to use a dictionary as a writer's language tool?
3. Principles of effective and meaningful writing.
4. Writing process: collecting data, organizing, drafting, revising, and proofreading
5. Journalist's word choices.
6. Parts of speech, active & passive voices, punctuation, reading skills for writers.
7. An effective sentence: Unity, coherence, emphasis, choppy sentences, sentence variety.
8. Paragraph writing: unity, coherence and development in a paragraph
9. Simple listing paragraphs, time-order paragraphs, multiple composition paragraphs.
10. The writing styles: Expository and report writing, descriptive and narrative writing.
11. Summarizing and précis writing.
12. Broadcast and web news writing, editorial, feature, column writing.
13. Writing Analysis, letters to editors, press releases and reviews, the art of interviews.

SEMESTER-III

This course prepares undergraduates to become successful writers and readers of English. The course helps students develop their fundamental language skills with a focus on writing so that they can gain the confidence to communicate in oral and written English outside the classroom. The course is divided into five units and takes a Project-based Learning approach. Unit themes target the development of 21st century skills and focus on self-reflection and active community engagement. The course completion will enable the students to develop communication skills as reflective and self-directed learners. They will be able to intellectually engage with different stages of writing process, and develop analytical and problem-solving skills to address various community-specific challenges.

Contents

1. Self-Reflection
 - Introduction to the basics of the writing process
 - Introduction to the steps of essay writing
 - Prewriting activities: Brainstorming, listing, clustering and freewriting
 - Practicing Outlining of the essay
2. Personalized Learning
 - Learning Process, Learning Styles, Goal Setting and Learning Plan
3. Oral Presentation
 - Structure and Significance, Content Selection and Slide Presentation, Peer Review
4. Critical Reading Skills
 - Introducing Authentic Reading (Dawn and non-specialist academic books/texts)
 - Reading Strategies and Practice: Skimming, scanning, SQW3R, Annotating, Detailed reading and note-taking, Standard Test Practice: TOEFL and IELTS, Model Review Reports and Annotated Bibliographies
5. Community Engagement
 - Student-led brainstorming on local versus global issues, Identifying research problems
 - Drafting research questions, Drafting interview/survey questions for community research (in English or L1)
 - Engaging students in Critical reading, Presenting interview/ survey information, Field work
 - Writing Community Engagement Project
6. Letter to the Editor
 - Types of letters, Format and purpose of letter to the editor, Steps in writing letter-to-editor
